

ᐃᓄᐱᐅ ᐅᐱᐅᐅᐱᐅ ᐅᐱᐅᐅᐱᐅ ᐅᐱᐅᐅᐱᐅ ᐅᐱᐅᐅᐱᐅ
UNGAVA TULATTAVIK HEALTH CENTER
CENTRE DE SANTÉ TULATTAVIK DE L'UNGAVA

JOB POSTING
(4000-148)

JOB TITLE: MIDWIFE
STATUS: TEMPORARY TIME (36.25 HOURS/WEEK)
2 TO 4 WEEKS ASSIGNATIONS (3 TO 5 ASSIGNATIONS PER YEAR)
IMMEDIATE SUPERVISOR: DIRECTOR OF THE COMMUNITY SERVICES
START DATE: AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

The Ungava Tulattavik Health Center (UTHC) maternity provides midwifery services and professional support to nurses in the seven communities of Ungava Bay. The majority of our clientele is Inuit and the majority of women will give birth in Kuujuaq with the midwifery team. The team consists of the equivalent of 4 full-time MW with a rich experience of maternity care in remote areas. We work in interdisciplinary with a team of nurses, doctors, student midwives and social workers to provide care to women who are low-risk and intermediate-risk pregnancies. We are part of the emergency evacuation team for premature deliveries or other obstetric or neonatal emergencies. Training inuit midwives is at the core of the Kuujuaq Maternity mission.

FUNCTIONS:

- Ensures follow-up on pregnancies, deliveries and immediate postpartum care for the mother and child;
- Consult the Doctors according to the protocols put in place;
- Working in partnership with village nursing and midwifery teams villages;
- Work in partnership with village nursing and midwifery teams;
- Engage and contribute to the training of local student midwives.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- To be a member of the Order of Midwives of Quebec (O.S.F.Q.);
- Up-to-date Obstetric Emergency Certification (ESW, ALARM);
- Up-to-date Certification in Advanced Neonatal Resuscitation, including intubation;
- Sense of responsibility, autonomy, maturity and diligence;
- Openness, intercultural teaching skills and listening skills are essential;
- Capacity to adapt to a different work environment; and work experience in the Nordic region;
- Experience working in remote areas is an asset;
- Facility and efficiency to work in interdisciplinary/multicultural team;
- Excellent command of the English language, fluency in Inuktitut and/or French an asset;
- Be available to travel to the Ungava Bay communities;
- Be available to be on call.

SALARY: Min: $1503.29 Max: $2133.68 / week
ISOLATION PREMIUM: $221.92/week
HIGH COST OF LIVING PREM.: $74.17/week
RETENTION PREMIUM: $383.29/week
POSTING DATE: Starting on January 13, 2025, inclusively

Any employee recruited in Quebec more than 50 kilometers from the locality in which she/he is called upon to perform her/his duties, will be granted annual trips and lodging unit as per her/his status, transit or shared lodging if necessary.

Send your application in French and English by email at : emploi.cstu@ssss.gouv.qc.ca